Purpose: Diné College's CDTE and CDS are again offering Navajo language immersion experiences to promote oral language proficiency in Navajo, as well as effective ways to teach Navajo in immersion settings. Instructors and speakers of Navajo will engage with Navajo language learners through fun, experiential, hands on language activities.

Eligibility: To participate in the Camp as a Navajo language learner, you must:
- be 15 years or older (participants under 18 years of age must be accompanied by parent or guardian)
- be willing to stay for the entire camp
- be willing to communicate using Navajo language, only, for the entire camp (yes, it can be done!)
- If you have any question about your ability to participate in the Camps, contact James McKenzie, Navajo Language Development Coordinator (jmckenzie@dinecollege.edu 928-724-6946, NHC 501D).

Meeting Location/Time: Once registered for camp(s), participants will be contacted with meeting time and exact location for the camp. Please plan to be available to meet as early as 9am on the first day of the camp.

Accommodations: We will be camping outdoors - with limited facilities (outhouses and no showers) – just a whole lot of fun activities and learning and living in the old ways! The camps take place in remote settings which will help participants learn Diné Bizaad by immersing them in traditional situations, on the land, away from the conveniences of modern buildings, running water, and electricity - (if grandma and grandpa could do it for a lifetime, we can all do it for a week!).

Cost/Payment: Meals and instruction will be covered by the program fee of $120 per participant, per camp. Payment must be made prior to the event to Annette Lang, at Center for Diné Studies Office, Diné College: 928-724-6658. Please understand that the availability of slots for Navajo language learners is limited and will be available on a first-come, first-served basis, and that all slots will be open until the fee is received (we must receive $120 fee to register you for the camp).

Thank you for enrolling to participate in the Diné Bizaad Immersion Course(s) and accompanying Diné Bizaad Immersion Camp(s)! In order to foster a learning environment and community that encourages Navajo language acquisition, to aid learners in building proficiency and understanding of the language, ALL participants MUST agree to the Language Camp Commitment. It’s challenging, but it works, and you can do it!

For this camp to be the best experience that it can be, it is extremely important that every participant make a sincere effort to use Navajo language as exclusively as possible throughout the camp. There will be very small windows of time, in which participants can briefly ask questions in English, to clarify words/phrases, etc. for purpose of Navajo language learning, if needed. But speaking English with other participants must be avoided at all times outside of these short sessions.

By signing this Language Camp Commitment during orientation, participants indicate their intention to speak only Navajo language to all people at all times (except during designated question sessions and in cases of emergency).

LANGUAGE CAMP COMMITMENT:

By signing this Language Camp Commitment, I agree to:

- Use Diné Bizaad (Navajo) as my only language of communication while participating in the Diné Bizaad Immersion Camp
- Not use electronic devices to access English information
- Stay for the entire duration of the camp
- Help and encourage other participants to learn Navajo language
- Participate in Group Activities, Learning Sessions, and Daily Settings
- Bring and maintain a POSITIVE ATTITUDE for learning the sacred Diné language!
