COURSE AND PROGRAM ASSESSMENTS

GRADING POLICY
You will earn a course grade by compiling points-per-assignment. Each of the assignments is worth a certain number of points as indicated above. You will receive no points for late assignments. Grades will be calculated by dividing points earned by total possible points, which creates a percentage, which translates into a traditional letter grade as follows:

- 100-90% = A
- 89-80% = B
- 79-70% = C
- 69-60% = D
- 59% or less = F

SCHEDULE (Optional)

ATTENDANCE POLICY
As teacher candidates, attendance for every class period is important and expected. An absence from class or practicum teaching is granted only in the case of:

- A verifiable illness (a doctor’s statement may be requested).
- Being a patient in a Navajo or other traditional/religious ceremony (again, a medicine-person’s or equivalent’s signed, notarized statement may be requested).
- A death in the immediate family.

All instructors must be contacted individually beforehand to request an absence. Instructors can be contacted in person, by phone, or by email. Do not leave a message with another faculty or staff person.

DISABILITY SUPPORT SERVICES
Diné College is committed to providing college-wide educational support and assistance for students with documented disabilities. Students who have learning disabilities, sensory impairments, psychological disabilities, or physical conditions are encouraged to meet with a Disability Coordinator to discuss resources and reasonable accommodations.

The following services are available: classroom accommodation, testing accommodations, educational coaching and referral for academic support services, career advising, and supportive counseling. Eligibility for services is dependent upon documentation of individual’s specific disability.

The Disability Support Services are available at the Tsaile and Shiprock Campuses. Community
Campus students seeking accommodations are encouraged to contact one of the two offices: Tsaile (928) 724-6856 or Shiprock (505) 368-3627.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Students are responsible for the integrity of their academic work. Examples of academic dishonesty include but are not limited to, obtaining unauthorized assistance in any academic work: cheating on a test; plagiarism; quoting without proper credit; modifying any examination, paper, record, report or project without the instructor’s approval for obtaining additional credit or an improved grade; and, representing the work of others as one’s own. Some of the penalties that may be imposed include: warning (written or oral); reducing the grade for the assignment, test, or project; reducing the grade for the course; assigning a failing grade for the course; dismissing the student from the course and issuing a grade of “W”; academic probation or and recording the decision in the student’s academic record.
