

2019 Navajo Sustainability Symposium Planning Meeting
Diné College, Tsaile Campus, Tsaile AZ
NH Building on 6th floor (Admin building) Board Room
February 27, 2019, 10:00 AM to 2:00 PM

Invitees: Chinle Chapter officials and staff, To’Nanees’Dizi Governance officials and staff, Diné College, Navajo Technical University, Navajo Nation Gaming Enterprise, Office of the Speaker, NTUA, NHA, DNR, DCD, OPVP, High Country Conference Center/NAU staff, and Flagstaff Convention and Visitors Bureau

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Sustainability Symposium is to engage business, academia, communities, NGOs and others in active discussion of the issues of Sustainability for Navajo Nation including, but not limited to, sustainable business practices, sustainable energy transitions, energy conservation, adopt and implement sustainable practices, creating sustainable neighborhoods, water conservation and purity, natural capital investments, sustainable tourism, language and culture, and sustain Mother Earth.

VISION STATEMENT

The Sustainability Symposium will act as a catalyst to encourage a more sustainable transition and practices across all sectors on Navajo Nation and to increase economic sustainability locally and regional that can serve as models for the Planet.

~Agenda~

- I. Welcome, Introduction, and Invocation
- II. Contract update on status of approval for April dates
- III. Update by SmokeFire Media, logo, website, marketing
- IV. Update on symposium registration and booth
- V. Corporate sponsorship packet
- VI. Review symposium agenda
- VII. Who is taking the lead on student poster contest? Need an update
- VIII. Identify presenters from Diné College & NTU
- IX. Others
- X. Next meeting at High Country Conference Center/NAU