

Science Undergraduate Laboratory Internship (SULI) Opportunities at Oak Ridge National Laboratory (ORNL)

2019 Summer Internship Information – Apply now!!

ORNL is the largest science and energy laboratory in the Department of Energy system. Areas of research include materials, neutron sciences, energy, high-performance computing, systems biology and national security. Visit <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NSCdUJ8cavw> to discover some exciting reasons why ORNL offers a great internship experience!

Benefits:

- Full-time participation from June 3- August 9, 2019, engaged in a research project under the direction of a laboratory scientist/engineer
- Career development workshops/lab tours
- $500 per week stipend, based on 40-hours per week*
- Limited travel reimbursement/housing allowance* (for those who qualify)

To be eligible, applicants must:

- Be at least 18 years of age
- Be a U.S. Citizen or Legal Permanent Resident
- Have a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0
- Be currently rolled full-time or have recently graduated with an undergraduate degree, as described in the two cases below:
 - The applicant must be currently enrolled as a full-time undergraduate student at an accredited institution (including accredited community colleges) and also have completed at least one year as a matriculated undergraduate student at the time of applying. Freshmen are not eligible, and Advanced Placement credits or other undergraduate credits obtained prior to undergraduate enrollment cannot be applied to meet the minimum one-year completion requirement.
 - Applicants who have completed or will complete their undergraduate degree prior to starting their internship may apply as a "Recent Graduate." This includes students who have graduated with an associate's degree or bachelor's degree, those who have completed a combined BS/MS program, and those who have completed an undergraduate degree and are now enrolled in a graduate studies program. The time period between receipt of an undergraduate degree and starting the SULI term must be two years or less.

The SULI internship requires a full-time (at least 40 hours per week) commitment onsite at ORNL in Oak Ridge, Tennessee. Some students find it reasonable to take online or evening classes during the course of the internship.*

Undergraduate credits obtained in high school cannot be applied to meet the minimum one-year completion requirement.*

Application deadline: January 10, 2019 5:00 p.m. ET
