It is with great promise that as the Navajo Nation, we continue to instill in the future generation, the integrity of what we are as Sa’ah Naaghai Bik’eh Hozhoo. Today we are the representation of the past, present and future, through art and the techniques used to portray strength of a never-ending story of survival. Today, we continue to share in our stories, songs, and the art of creation and we invite you to be apart of that.

The Ned Hatathli Museum, of Dine College in Tsaile, Arizona invites you to participate in “DREAM. CREATE. INSPIRE. Staff and Faculty Exhibiton.” This exhibition is open to Staff and Faculty of Diné College. The show will an be an inaugural exhibit to create a foundation for future exhibitions designed to help instill the mission statement of Dine College, as well as the Ned Hatathli Museum. For a very long time, we have only dreamed of creating such an exhibit that show cases the talent of our very own staff and faculty, as we continue to inspire our students, in our classrooms, outside the classroom and in our museum.

Please submit your contemporary and fine art work (Limit of 4), as well as short videos to the Ned Hatathli Museum Curator, Nonabah Sam. Works should include title, medium, dimensions, date created, (please submit most recent works, if possible).

Submissions should be accompanied with an artist statement to:
