

National Center for American Indian Health Professions

ATSU offers programs in:

Doctorate-level

Athletic Training (O)
Audiology (A)
Dental Medicine (A & M)
Osteopathic Medicine (A & M)
Occupation Therapy (O)
Physical Therapy (A)
Health Administration (O)
Health Sciences (O)
Health Education (O)

Master's-level:

Athletic Training (O)
Biomedical Sciences (M)
Occupational Therapy (A)
Physician Assistant Studies (A & C)
Kinesiology (O)
Health Administration (O)
Public Health (O)
School Health Education (O)

Arizona (A) California (C)
Online (O) Missouri (M)

To apply: submit application on our website: Pre-Admission Workshop

<https://www.atsu.edu/american-indian>

Is your destiny healing your community?

Supporting Future Healers

The National Center for American Indian Health Professions collaborate with all A.T. Still University (ATSU) programs to support American Indian and Alaska Native students in successfully navigating the academic and personal journey toward graduation.

Seeking students in osteopathic healthcare.

Pre-Admission Workshop (PAW) 2022

September 8-10, 2022

A.T. Still University
5850 E Still Circle
Mesa, Arizona 85206

Application deadline: August 24, 2022

<https://www.atsu.edu/american-indian#preadmission-workshops>

- Complete application
- Written description of your connection to American Indian/Alaska Native tribe/nation/community
- A one (1) page personal statement of 4,500 characters or less describing who you are and why you are interested in your specific medical program
 - Proof of tribal enrollment (Certificate of Indian Blood)

FREE and In-Person workshops

To be held on our Mesa, AZ campus

- Admissions Process
 - Preparing for Admissions Testing
- Financial Aid and Scholarship Resources
- Interview Process including Mock Interviews
 - Becoming a Competitive Applicant
 - Networking
- ...and so much more

Accommodations, meals, travel and reimbursements are all included.

ATSU
A.T. Still University
FIRST IN WHOLE PERSON
HEALTHCARE