SUMMER RESEARCH ENHANCEMENT PROGRAM

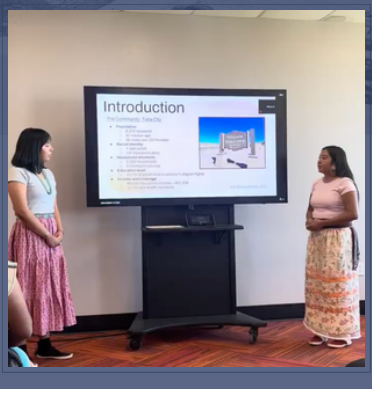

May 24, 2027- July 30, 2027

A 10-week summer program designed to prepare Native American undergraduate students for careers in public health and health research.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW:

STAGE 1:
Intensive 3-week training in Public Health Research Methods on campus at Diné College, Tsaile, AZ

STAGE 2:
Six-week community needs assessment practicum in student's community

STAGE 3:
Final week: community primary prevention plan and presentation - Diné College, Tsaile, AZ

PROGRAM BENEFITS:

- $6,210 stipend, distributed bi-weekly
- 7 transferrable college credits in Public Health (4 classroom, 3 practicum)
- Room and board while at the Diné College Tsaile Campus during Stage 1 and Stage 3
- Cultural integration throughout program

FINAL DEADLINE:

February 21, 2027

APPLY HERE:

https://tinyurl.com/2smdvaem

Diné College

FOR MORE INFORMATION, EMAIL:

srep@dinecollege.edu

NAU NORTHERN ARIZONA UNIVERSITY